

Skills to Succeed Academy

Accenture’s Skills to Succeed Academy is a free, interactive, online training programme.

Our Employability courses focus on building the skills and confidence you need to choose the right career, find a job, and be successful in the workplace with coaching and feedback.

Our New Skills Now curriculum will help build the critical skills for success in the future workforce, such as working effectively with others, solving problems and using technology to prepare learners for success in the digital economy.

The training focuses on capabilities that individuals can learn at any age and refine over time and learners can explore a range of bite-sized modules, to develop the dynamic mix of skills needed to navigate the world of work.

What’s included?

108 interactive, bite-sized modules to pick and choose from including – how to identify your transferable skills, create a great CV, stand out in an interview and build a professional online presence

Relevant, realistic training featuring relatable characters

Innovative simulations that allow you to try out real life work scenarios (e.g., a job interview or the first day in a new job) and to experience the impact of your decisions

A simple online pre-assessment that generates a personalised learning curriculum based on your needs
